	Cognitive	e Executive	Function R	-
Ratings	s: Choose t	he appropri	ate number	for each exe	ecutive func	tion:
0 NO pro	1 oblem	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10 BIG pro	roblem
										Family Rating	Patient Rating

		Rating	Rating
	Cognitive Executive Function Deficits
Inflexibility	unable to take different perspective or "shift gears"
Perseveration	"locking on" to a task or thought; "fixated;"
	unable to "break set"
Planning and time	thinking in advance; following a timeline management
Problem solving	finding solutions - "what and how do I do this?"
Impulse control	thinking before speaking or acting
Judgment	weighing alternatives and making good choices
Initiation	getting things started
Follow through	seeing tasks through to completion in a timely manner
Complex attention	difficulty paying attention in complex and distractibility	situations; cannot focus attention
Sequencing	completing steps of a task in order
Generating strategies	coming up with new ideas or techniques to solve problems
Decision making	making good and realistic decisions
Multitasking	doing multiple things well at once or "juggling balls"
Organization	keeping things neat and orderly
Setting priorities	completing tasks based on their relative importance
Abstract reasoning	thinking on a general level or "outside the box"
Concrete thinking	taking things literally and at face value
Black-and-white	all or nothing thinking; no gray zones thinking
Seeing the "big	considering the many factors that go into a picture"	decision; seeing the grand scheme of things

A rating scale of cognitive executive function deficits, including definitions